Our education event is a mere five days away (wow!). We have confirmed participation from Assemblyperson Patrick O'Donnell (Chair, CA Assembly Education Committee), Steven Zimmer (LAUSD School Board President and District 4 Representative), Michelle King (Chief Deputy Superintendent), and Cheryl Hildreth (Instructional Area Superintendent, LAUSD Educational Service Center, West) who will each serve as panelists. Representatives from the offices of Senator Benjamin Allen (i.e., Fernando Morales), Councilperson Mike Bonin (i.e., Fred Sutton), and Assemblyperson Autumn Burke (i.e., Odysseus Bostick) will attend and provide brief synopses of their education platforms regarding the Westside. This meeting represents a collaboration between four Los Angeles Neighborhood Councils: Westchester/Playa, Del Rey, Mar Vista, Venice, and Westside Village. The audience will be comprised of parents (with or without school-aged children in public schools), teachers, principals, residents, realtors, and business owners who are interested in strengthening our schools.

Details need to be finalized for the event, including: marketing to maximize attendance, news coverage, logistics for the meeting, the program moderator, questions, Committee task assignments (e.g., set up, greeters, time monitor, sign-in, question/audience management), acknowledgments. Next regular NCWP Education Committee meeting is November 30, 2015 at 6:30pm (Note the modified date due to the holiday).
